Contribution Statement:

Homes for South Haiti was launched as a Christian mission ministry in 2014 by members of GraceSpring Church with support from the church. Over the last 11 years we have built 39 new concrete block homes for needy families in southern Haiti. We replaced 40 roofs for families and one roof for a large church that had been destroyed by category 5 hurricane. We have funded a new community well, and have provided rice twice per year for hundreds of needy families through our network of local Haitian churches.

In a big development, on September 5, 2025 we have formalized the ministry by incorporating Homes for South Haiti, Inc as a non profit charitable organization. We have received our FEIN from the IRS and have filed with the Secretary of State in Florida. We have established our bank account, mailing address, and in early October our web presence will go live.

While we are now starting to receive charitable contributions, we are also in process of filing with the IRS for our 501 (c) 3 tax exempt status. Until we receive their determination on our application, Homes for South Haiti cannot assure that contributions made directly to the ministry will be tax deductible. While some contributors are unconcerned for charitable deductions for their taxes, for others it will be important.

If tax exemption is important to you, you may support the ministry as we have been for the last 11 years through making contributions directly to GraceSpring Church in Vero Beach, Florida designated for Homes for South Haiti. Giving to the church is tax deductible. The church generously deducts no overhead in order to maximize support to the ministry in Haiti. You could either send a check to the church by regular mail at the address below, or make an online contribution designated to Homes for South Haiti on the church's website, also listed below. If you send a check, please write Homes for South Haiti in on the memo portion of your check.

If our tax filing is successful, ministry contributions would be approved retroactive to the date of incorporation on September 5, 2025. We have learned that IRS determinations often take as little as six weeks, but can in some cases take several months or more. If we become approved in 2026 after a contributor has filed their 2025 taxes, the deduction would likely be eligible for deduction in 2026. Please be aware that there is a risk that without eventual approval your gift could potentially prove non-deductible. We will update the website when our IRS 501 (c) 3 approval has been received.
